THE GREILING (CRYLING, KREILING, KREYLING, ETC.) FAMILY

The conclusions here stated are based on the results of an exhaustive research made by Rev. A. S. Leiby of Easton, Pa., data from the Census records and family tradition.

Was John Eberhard Kreyling (Cryling) the father or a brother of Peter? I am inclined to believe he was a brother since his estate was handled in the orphans court at Easton. This would indicate he was not an old man. He died two years after Peter.

Was George Greiling who went to Ohio a son of Matthias, son of Jacob? It seems that he was.

Accepting these conclusions the history is as follows.

Number 1 First Generation Peter Kreyling

Peter Kreyling lived in Upper Milford Township, Northampton County, Pa. and died there in 1767, the month of his death being November or December.

By his first wife Anna Maria there were four children: Jacob(2); George(6); Susanna Kreyling Kegel Mary Kreyling Shout.

His second wife Elizabeth died in October, 1802. At his death there were four children, all under fourteen, by this second marriage: Salomo(7) married Michael Ritter, son of Casper Ritter. Sarah Kreyling married Jacob Miller. Anna was single in 1802; Catherine married George Hepler.

Further data on this family will be found in the documentary evidence. It may be noted that Anna Kreyling is later reported to have married Johannes Flock.

Number 2 Second Generation(1) Jacob Kreyling

Jacob Kreyling disappeared in 1776 and was never heard from. By his wife Anna Maria he had two children: Matthias(3); Margaret Kreyling Johnson born in 1768.

Number 3. Third Generation(2) Matthias Kreyling.

Matthias Kreyling married Barbara Heller, daughter of Michael Heller. He died in 1825. In one place Rev. Leiby says his wife was Anna Maria. This is evidently an error.

The George Greiling must have been a son of Matthias, the eldest without doubt. He is named an administrator and is a debtor along with Lydia Kreyling who was a daughter of Matthias.

Including George the children of Matthias and Barbara Kreyling were: George(4) Margaret, born Sept. 12, 1777, baptized by Rev. Leiby at Lower Saucon Nov. 12 of records; Maria, born 1803, baptized at Lower Saucon at age of sixteen by Rev. Pomp Nov. 27, 1819 (page 78 of records); Maria Magdalena, born May 14, 1804, and baptized at Lower Saucon by Rev. John Hoffmiller August 6, 1804 (page 34 of records); Lydia, born Nov. 10, 1807, confirmed at Lower Saucon by Rev. Thos. omp Oct. 25, 1825.

Number 4

Fourth Generation(3)

George Greiling

We do not know when George Greiling was born nor when he died. There are various records of him in Pennsylvania and we know he was in Wayne County, Ohio, by 1835.

His first wife was Eva Catherine Mabus (Mebus, Moebus, etc). She was a sister of Fredrich Mabus. They had a daughter Anna (5) born according to the church records Sept. 15, 1815. It will be noted that the date of birth is given elsewhere as Sept. 24, 1815 which may have been the date of the baptism.

December 5, 1823, Jacob Miller was named guardian for Anna Kreiling upon the refusal of George Kreiling her father to act. She was then under fourteen.

The second wife of George Greiling was Elizabeth, daughter of Jost William Hecker. Their children were: Hanna; Maria; Catherine; George; Reuben; Sarah.

Mrs. Loretta Stahl Randall says there was a son Solomon and in 1840 we find in Wayne County, Ohio, a record of the family of Solomon Greiling in the Census. In this family there were two males under five, one five to ten, one ten to fifteen and one twenty to thirty, one female under five and one between twenty and thirty. If this is correct Solomon Greiling must have been born between 1810 and 1830 but it would seem that he could not have been born before 1818. Mrs. Randall also says there was a daughter Eliza who married Hiram Reinoehl.

Number 5

Fifth Generation(4)

Anna Greiling.

Anna Greiling was born Sept. 15 or 24, 1815. She married John Stahl Dec. 4, 1834. Mrs. Loretta Stahl Randall says the marriage took place in Wayne County, Ohio. This can hardly be the case. Their son J. Thomas was evidently born in Miles Township, Centre County, Pa. It is hardly possible that they went to Ohio and then back to Pennsylvania.

For the descendants of John and Anna Greiling Stahl see the history of the Stahl family.

Number 6

Second Generation(1)

George Kreyling

George Kreyling died in 1782 leaving two children whose names are not known.

Number 7

Second Generation(1)

Salome Kreyling

Salome Kreyling married Michael Ritter, son of Casper Ritter. They lived in Bedford County, Virginia, or Botetourt as stated in one place in 1804. She took over the property of Peter Kreyling and settled with the heirs.

Statement of Mrs. Loretta Stahl Randall

Seneca, Indiana.

John Stahl was born March 25, 1813 in Mahamun County (doubtless Northampton County), Pa. Anna Greiling was born Sept. 24, 1815 in Northampton County, Pa. Could this have been the date of the baptism. The church records say Sept. 15.

John Stahl and Anna Greiling were married Dec. 4, 1834, in Wayne County, Ohio, at Wooster. Is this correct?

At one time George Greiling, her grandfather, lived at or near Brookfield, Ohio. There was a son Solomon and a daughter Eliza who married Hiram McInochl.

Anna Greiling Stahl was a Presbyterian and her father was either Presbyterian or Lutheran. It should be remembered that the Reformed Church to which the Greilings belonged in Pennsylvania is often called the German Presbyterian Church.

Crestline, Wooster and Brookfield have been named as places of residence of George Greiling.

When Anna Greiling was two years old or thereabouts her mother died. There were several children by the second marriage. Some of the family lived near St. Joe, Indiana.

George Greiling, father of her grandfather George Greiling, was a tavern keeper in the east some place. He was going somewhere and climbing a fence fell and was frozoh to death. Her grandfather George Greiling was a farmer.

She does not recall hearing of Reuben, a brother of her mother.

Other Notes.

Anna Greiling Stahl often spoke of Allentown.

Solomon Greiling is found in Wayne County, Ohio, in 1840. He was then between twenty and thirty.

Frank Stahl says his father was born in Miles Township, Centre County, Pa. John Peter Stahl lived there in 1840.

The above may not be the consecutive order of birth. They must, however, be the children of the parents as indicated, because there were no other Kreilings. The only other family known was the family of Peter in Upper Milford Township whose children have all been accounted for.

There is no evidence that Maria Margaret Kreyling married Martin Gross, other than that at the baptism of two children of Martin and Maria Margaret Gross John Eberhard Kreyling and his wife Sabina were sponsors. This was a common custom and the assumption is undoubtedly correct.

The only other possible alternative to the above assumptions is that John Eberhard Freyling, Peter and Sarah Freyling were brothers and sister. There is, however, no possible way from present available evidence to substantiate this.

There is no conclusive evidence where son he was but I am inclined to think that he was a son of Matthias. All indications point to this. He was undoubtedly the eldest son of Matthias for a George was one of the administrators of the estate of Matthias. At that time there was no other George except the son of George who was not born until 1826.

Matthias and his family were the only Kreilings who lived in Whitehall Township.

It appears that Jacob Kreiling was married twice. Under date of March 10, 1834, Henry Strauss, father-in-law of Jacob Kreiling asks for a guardian for two children, namely, Charles and Rebecca. It is further stated that Jacob died in Ohio.

Whose son Jacob Kreiling was I cannot determine.
